Dear Jim:

I gave the papers of the Gettysburg meeting to T. Harry Williams, who had a very brief look at them, was most favorably impressed, and passed them on to Frank Vandiver.

I've not yet heard from Frank, but will see him tomorrow at the National Assembly of the CW Centennial Commission.

I will get his opinion, and the manuscript back, as soon as possible; at which time I will send Colonel Virden his paper.

Cordially,

D. R. Ellegood mb
